1. Hear, O hear us, Is - rael's Shep-herd, Who drives forth Jo - seph like a flock!
2. O how long, LORD God of Ar - mies, Burns Your wrath at Your peo - ple's prayer!
3. You brought forth a vine from E - gypt, And to plant it drove na - tions out.
4. Why have You torn down its fenc - es? It is plucked by each pass - ing hand!
5. It is burned and hewn in piec - es, By Your frown will they be de - stroyed!

From the cher - u - bim, O shine forth! Rise in val - or that we be saved!
With the bread of tears You feed them, And full meas - ure of tears they drink!
You made room to root it deep - ly, And it flour - ished and filled the land.
For - est boars have gnawed up - on it, And wild crea - tures have pas - tured there!
Lay Your hand on him You fa - vored, Son of man that You raised in strength!

So a - rise in sight of E - phraim, And Ma - na - seh and Ben - ja - min!
Strife You make us to our neigh - bors, And our foes laugh at us in scorn!
Then its shad - ow wrapped the moun - tains, And its boughs hid the ce - dars tall!
Turn a - gain, O God of Ar - mies! Look from heav'n! Vis - it this Your vine!
Then from You we will not wan - der; Make us live! We will call Your name!

God, we pray, O turn us! Bring us back! Make Your face shine, and we are saved!
God of Ar - mies, turn us! Bring us back! Make Your face shine, and we are saved!
To the sea it thrust great branch - es forth. And young shoots to the might - y stream.
So up - hold what Your right hand did plant, And the son You raised up in strength!
O LORD God of Ar - mies, turn us back! Make Your face shine, and we are saved!
